All clean. All good.

High end restaurant dining rooms and restrooms alike can benefit from using Cascades PRO Signature™ dinner airlaid napkins as the napkin and hand towel choice that meets the expectations of discerning guests.

Thick, soft and embossed, Cascades PRO Signature™ dinner Airlaid napkins feel like linen, with durable construction for added strength and absorption. High end restaurants can use these premium napkins for a variety of purposes, with a quarterfold option that works well for rolled or banded silverware and folded as part of an attractive table setting. These napkins are disposable, making them a hygienic alternative to rented, reused linen napkins.
